

Providence Acute Rehabilitation Center

Providence Acute Rehabilitation Center is the only inpatient rehabilitation center in Oregon housed within a Magnet-designated facility. Facilities that have earned Magnet status from the American Nurses Credentialing Center have been shown to have better outcomes and higher patient satisfaction.

At PARC, doctors and therapists provide comprehensive care and rehabilitation to help people regain their physical, cognitive, language and psychosocial skills after a life-altering medical event, such as:

- Stroke
- Neurological disorder
- Head injury
- Amputation
- Orthopedic condition, including joint replacement
- Spinal cord injury
- Catastrophic illness
- Congenital disorder
- Multiple trauma

Services

- Evaluation and treatment of speech, language, reading, writing, cognition and swallowing disorders
